

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

No attention is paid to unsigned communications addressed to him and delivered through the mails, Chief John McFarland, of the police, said Monday morning. Writers who send in such communications and are without the courage or honesty to sign their names have their writing trouble for their pains. The communications usually relate to some alleged violation of the law. The police department is anxious at all times to know about illegal transactions, but it cannot be expected to start out on what may prove to be no more than a wild goose chase, because someone writes a letter to the chief and accuses someone of doing some unlawful thing. So he tips to the writers of anonymous letters to sign their names. Such information as you may give need not necessarily involve you, but the police want some guarantee that there is honesty and sincerity back of complaints that come to them.

Lily May Moran of East Killingly, charged with assault on Mrs. Nettie Gardner of that place, and with breach of the peace, was fined $1 on the first count and $2 on the second count by Judge W. Penner Woodward in the town court Monday morning and costs, a total of $13.47.

Attorney Charles L. Torrey, representing the accused, entered a demurrer to the complaint, which Judge Woodward overruled, whereupon Mrs. Moran gave notice of appeal, but after starting to leave the court room counsel and client conferred and reached a decision to pay, which was done.

The affair that caused the appearance in court of the accused occurred at East Killingly, where Mrs. Gardner, the wife of the plaintiff, was in the details of the effort did not develop during Monday's hearing.

The first presence of the coming Christmas rush for the postoffice force made itself felt here Monday morning when the incoming amount of parcel post was unusually large. Before 10 a. m. three delivery wagons such as are used by the department had been distributed to firms in the immediate vicinity of the postoffice, these deliveries came early and avoid the delays that may be incident to consigning them to the mails in the height of the rush season.

The K. of C. team will have a real battle on its hands Saturday next when the Newport Naval Reserve five comes to Danielson to entertain the basketball team. The visiting team is remembered here as one of the strongest five seen in action during the playing season of last year, when it snatched a victory from the Connecticut Mills team after a hard struggle. K. of C. will oppose the naval reservists with Blair, Reddy, Norman, Murphy and Higgins, a playing combination exceedingly hard to beat.

Walter A. McFarlane has returned from Hartford where he attended the annual conference of the Institution of Accountants, made up of expert accountants from many sections of the country. Christmas shopping was given another boost Monday when money from many holiday club checks was put into circulation to pay shopping bills. Various firms reported having made excellent sales to holders of club checks or the cash equivalent of the same.

PUTNAM

No more skating at Perry's pond! This was the edict made known Monday relative to a skating resort that has been popular with the young people of the city for many years.

Abuse of the privilege, it is stated by the police, is the reason for closing this conveniently located pond to the skaters. It is said that numbers of the skaters have shown no respect for property rights. They have cut up the fields surrounding the pond with wheel tracks, have strewn stones and bottles about on the ice, much to the hindrance of cutters who have to work there, have broken windows in buildings and otherwise so deplored.

There was a threat of another ice storm Monday morning when rain began to fall with the mercury just above the freezing point. Some ice did accumulate during the first half hour of the storm, but rising temperature relieved the possibility of such a storm as occurred two weeks ago a few miles north of Danielson and the day passed with only rain falling.

A considerable number who are not at all inclined to be prurish are being just a little bit shocked this season by the extremes to which some of the expenses of modern dancing are going in public dance halls. A recent dance has caused the most comment and may be responsible for giving impetus to a movement intended to have thorough officials keep an office on duty yet control with a view to ordering from the floor such couples as over-step reasonable limits in having what is usually described as "a good time."

Attention of generous people of Danielson is called to the fact that some good people in various towns of Windham county make a practice each year of remembering the children at the Windham county temporary home for children in the Savoy. District of the town of Putnam. Numbered among the nearly 100 children now at the institution are many from the town of Killingly. The fact that they are at the home is an indication that they are either orphans or of parents unwilling or unable to care for them.

Though they are comfortably housed and well cared for, they will be lacking much of the joy attendant upon the Christmas season unless the good people of the county remember them by sending some little gift for the home. Christmas gifts, children's books, cards, games, candies, fruit, etc., as well as more practical gifts, will be gratefully received in the name of the children at the home. A few small remembrances from a dozen people in each town of the county would serve to make a wonderful holiday for the children at the home, where Killingly has a considerable representation.

It was stated Monday that there is no immediate prospect of the Connecticut Mills company disposing of its main street plant, formerly the Danielson Cotton company. There have been rumors recently relative to the sale of this property and have been of the nature of very great interest to the local public.

A regular drill of the service battery is scheduled to be held at the state armory this evening. The men are now being given instruction in service battery work and in motor transport work, the latter including general rules for convoy service. As yet detailed study of gas motors has not been undertaken, but will be later. When the highways dry out in the spring the company also will take the trucks out on the highway to undergo certain phases of instruction relative to the use of the vehicles. It is expected that the company will travel to camp in the trucks next summer.

Newly elected and appointed officers of the Danielson Lodge, No. 15, A. F. and A. M., are to be installed this (Tuesday) evening with Past Master E. L. Darbie as installing officer.

A meeting of the Ladies' Reading circle was held with Mrs. A. C. Greene of North Main street Monday afternoon.

No more crushed stone is to be put down this season on the new state highway to South Killingly on account of being in the ground. Drills will continue working on the ledge where quarrying will be continued to get stone for crushing.

This week-end will bring home some college students who will remain over the Christmas holiday period.

Mrs. Esther Jacobs will have members of the W. C. T. U. at her home for a meeting this (Tuesday) afternoon.

A car driven by Peter Havas crashed into one owned by Oscar Bernier and standing beside the curb in the business section. Neither car was badly damaged in the crash, which occurred at a time when a trolley car was coming along.

themselves as to make it necessary to forbid skating there this winter.

Not all, by any means, who have enjoyed skating at the pond, have been guilty of the misdemeanors enumerated, but included in the throngs who have gone there have been some given to bad practices and without respect for property rights, so the innocent suffer with the guilty.

No pressure of the expected holiday rush was evidenced at the Putnam postoffice up to Monday. It was stated by members of the postal force. The usual amount of mail is coming through and not much more.

During a visit to this city Monday morning Rev. J. H. Hargrave, of Trinity church at Pomfret, was cordially greeted by many acquaintances and congratulated on his narrow escape from serious injury when he was struck on the head, two weeks ago, by a heavy tree that fell from a tree at his place during the ice storm. Father Hargrave managed to get up after being hit and to walk into the rectory, though he has not remembrance of this, and for some time thereafter was unconscious. He has almost fully recovered, though his right shoulder still troubles him as the result of sustaining part of the blow from the falling limb.

In Odd Fellows' hall, Monday afternoon, there was a sale of heads and fancy work in connection with a regular meeting of Elizabeth Porter Putnam chapter, D. A. R. A regular meeting of the board was held at 3.30.

One group of Postal Telegraph linemen who have been making their headquarters at a local hotel for nearly two weeks have been transferred to Thompson, where they will make their headquarters while cleaning up what remains of the storm damage of two weeks ago.

A number of people who were still engaged in cleaning up damage in Pomfret, Thompson and Woodstock.

As has been its custom in a quiet way for a number of years, Putnam lodge of Elks will again observe Christmas cheer to needy persons this season. This is a work of the lodge that is done almost secretly and in keeping with its great principle of benevolence.

In areas that suffered severely from the ice storm crews of men are engaged in an effort to secure better drainage, shade and fruit trees. Broken limbs are being saved off, loose bark removed and the trees treated according to suggestions made during the past week by forestry experts who came into this territory and made suggestions to two owners.

State Attorney Charles E. Pearce is giving his attention to cases on the criminal list that will come up for consideration at the January term of the Windham county superior court, to be held in Williamstowne. The cases are not yet set as at the October term, but there will, as a considerable amount of business, it is now indicated.

Damage to the wheel at the plant of the Waterman Worsted company forced suspension of operations at the plant during a few hours of Monday while repairs were being made.

Mrs. Lily May Moran, of East Killingly, was taken into custody here by Captain J. H. Bulger, at the request of Killingly officers. Mrs. Moran was presented in the town court of Killingly at Danielson Monday to answer to a charge of assault and breach of the peace.

Following up proceedings in Thompson last week, Constable Ned Coderre of North Grotonville has given notice that he will prosecute all persons who own unlicensed dogs or who allow dogs to go about without having collars and registration tags.

More than ever this year the presentation of the Danielson Play is to be given this year at the school in an attractive manner. This attention is given by magazine articles and news stories appearing in some of the important publications of the country.

At Putnam High school the basketball season will open this (Tuesday) evening with the Woodstock team as visitors. This will be the opening game of the league season. Putnam High has another game scheduled for Friday of this week when the Thompson team will, with the change of last season, play Putnam five in the lineup appears here.

It is expected that no difficulty will be experienced when work is undertaken in the spring of completing an authorized stretch of state highway from West Thompson to Grotonville, connecting with a state highway already completed at that point. This will open what is expected to be a popular route to Worcester.

Business places in Putnam are to keep open extra evenings during the coming week to accommodate holiday shoppers, but just when the extra opening nights will begin had not been announced up to Monday.

Approximately one hundred miles of telephone wire has been run in territory heretofore in repairing damage, done to the line storm of two weeks ago.

Dr. Hugh B. Russell will come from Norwich to the Danielson hospital to perform (Tuesday) to conduct a clinic.

There was no session of the city court Monday morning, an indication that the week-end passed quietly in this city.

That there will be no session of the court in the personnel of the fire department (served in January is stated on good authority. Numbers of the men who are to go in have had previous experience in the Putnam fire department.

Ice four inches thick, this season's freeze, was shown in the business section Monday. Ice on some small bodies of water was said to have reached a thickness of about two inches.

The first of the new registration plates for automobiles have arrived in Putnam. The plates have maroon numbers like those on the 1921 markers and are on white backgrounds.

The final meeting of the present common council is set for January 3 at 7 p. m., this to close up the business of the council as it is now constituted.

Pow purchases of new automobiles during 1921 and depreciation of used cars will materially reduce the grand list now being compiled in some towns in this territory.

Again Monday as on other occasions this season, snow fell a few miles north of Worcester Monday, while Putnam and the surrounding country was getting ready for a winter.

E. C. Rogers of Mantap farm, is the new Putnam representative on the executive committee of the Windham County Farmers' association.

The Village Improvement society of Thompson had met again last night to help meet the cost of treating damaged trees on the common at Thompson town.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rich of North Grotonville are now occupying the house on Grove street formerly occupied by Jesse Rich.

Attorney Charles L. Torrey was at Danielson Monday to represent a client in Killingly town court.

It is estimated that nearly a half of the cars owned in the territory surrounding Putnam have been put out of service for the winter or will be as soon as the present registrations expire at the end of the year.

EAST THOMPSON

In the East Thompson grade school, pupils attending school session every day during November were Anna, Emma, Minnie and Edna.

A Thanksgiving program was given by the children Nov. 23d. Refreshments were served to about 16 parents and friends at the close of the entertainment.

CHILDREN WHO NEED
COD LIVER OIL
WILL TAKE VINOL

Because it contains no oil, but does contain all the medicinal elements which have made Cod Liver Oil famous, together with vegetable iron and other up-building ingredients especially favorable for children. Many children in this city have been restored to robust health by taking Vinol, and we ask any mother who has a delicate child to try it on our guarantee that it is perfectly harmless, and if it does not help the child the druggist will return the full purchase price.

For a hundred years the medicinal elements contained in the cod's liver and oil have been regarded as the safest and best strength and body building medicinal agents known.

Many people, however—especially children—cannot take cod liver oil because of the nauseating oil.

In Vinol they get all the medicinal value of cod liver oil and emulsion in a delicious tasting form and entirely free from oil—agreeable to the most delicate stomach—therefore it is better.

If you have a delicate child, give it Vinol. Knowing that it has helped so many other children, you owe it to the child.

and it certainly would have been more brightly. One of the parties forced to donate the pipes for one side of the road, but the offer was declined. It is also stated that the guard rail prevents free access to one of the buildings and figures the value of the property. As the Town Improvement society is endeavoring to improve the appearance of the Green, it is being urged that some less objectionable method for protection against accidents at this point be devised or that pipes be placed in the ditch, and then covered.
